THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE S.ANANDA REDDY
W.P. No. 4292 of 2004

ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Mr. Justice Bilal Nazki)

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. The grievance of the petitioner is that the Respondent was not giving effect to the order of assessment, dated 23.4.2002 by which the petitioner had been held to be entitled to a refund of Rs.14,52,442/-.

3. During the pendency of the writ petition, this Court was informed by the learned Government Pleader that revisional proceedings have been initiated, and on 9.8.2004 this Court recorded the statement of the learned Government Pleader that the Revisional Authority had already issued notices in the revision. On this submission being made, this Court directed the Revisional Authority to decide the revision finally in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks. Now, the learned Government Pleader submits that the revision has already been decided and the Revisional Authority has passed an order by virtue of which the petitioner is not entitled to any refund. As such this writ petition has become infructuous.

4. Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. However, if the petitioner is having any grievance against the order of the Revisional Authority, it is at liberty to take all remedies that are available in law. No costs.
